WEIRD DETECTIVE #5

Written by Fred Van Lente // © 2016 Guiu Vilanova & FVL

Panel 1: Establishing shot of a building partially under construction — mostly beams and plastic. Very hyper-modern but currently deserted. It is quite LATE AT NIGHT.

1. SANA (INSIDE): His name was Mustafa Mahmoud.

Panel 2: Sana, wearing a coat, dressed to be outside, holding a steaming coffee cup, walks up a ramp from the bottom floor. Leave room for dialogue.

2. SANA: He came on our radar by way of Cairo. Egyptian military had been sweating a Tajik national CIA snatched in Prague, right after that dance club bombing — in Seoul?

3. SANA: This Tajik guy he swears on his mother's life, on the Quran, whatever they put in front of him — that they've got a cell right here, in New York, right now, planning to bomb nightclubs in Manhattan.

4. SANA: And we have this thing called Fleet Week coming up. All the U.S. Navy sailors everywhere, getting hammered, laid, and hopefully not-blown-up?

Panel 3: REVERSE ANGLE - walking up ahead of her is GREENE, mostly in darkness. But — weirdly — he's wearing the same Miami Vice white jacket combo we saw him in in the middle of #4, not the Bogie trenchcoat deal he strode dramatically off in at the end of the issue. That seems ... significant.

5. SANA (DOWN): Now the name NYPD got out of Cairo was Mustafa Mahmoud, who turns out to run a bagel kiosk in the meat-packing district...

6. SANA (DOWN): ...where all the nightclubs are.

7. SANA (DOWN): Our team picks him up at his garage in Eleventh Avenue just as he's supposed to be haul his cart out for the morning.

8. SANA (DOWN): We start sweating him about eight, eight-thirty.

Panel 4: CU - Sana. Leave room for dialogue.

9. SANA: By noon he started confessing to stuff. Anything we wanted to hear, because he thought, because we told him, that was what would get him out of there.

10. SANA: But by ten he recanted every single thing. All that stuff about him being involved in the nightclub? That was the lie.

11. SANA: Fleet Week was starting in twenty-four hours, you know?

12. SANA: Tick-tock.

13. SANA: Tick-tock.
