

Polycart provides a wide range of printed boxes and bags at best price

Yes, with Polycraft your packaging needs like printed boxes and bags are fulfilled like never before. Operating from Sofia, Bulgaria, this company caters to all types and sectors of the economy and reaches out to different countries in the EU. Especially, Polycart operates or supplies its products only after getting the orders, but for the benefit of its customers, some quantities of these products are kept at its counters. Polycart specializes in paper, carton, plastic and corrugated packaging and the needs of its customers are taken care of in the best possible manner, its rates being kept low throughout the EU.

Further, working in partnership with other companies in the electronics, textile, jewellery, pharmacy, food, parts and drinks industries, Ploycart offers these premium luxury packaging solutions like printed boxes and bags, and it is not hyperbole to state that it is the best place in the EU and beyond where you can get synthetic, cardboard, cover, self-adhesives and corrugated materials, and printed and plain packaging items. Samples of items which you wish to have within the desired price range are also accepted, which helps us in supplying the same to our customers.

You have known our printed boxes and bags, now know us better!

Since our inception, our customers have been of utmost importance and we ensure all our departments like Production, Sales, Customer Service, Administration and Accounting etc work in their best possible way to make these customers' dealings with us as hassle-free as possible for them. In all our workings, our every staff, from a Production Supervisor to a Customer Service Representative ensures that orders are never neglected and are supplied on time, and utmost quality is also always maintained.

We owe much of our success today to our workforces and in their workings, they are always exposed to the best of work ethics and culture. They are also constantly imbued with the belief that along with their well being, the well being of the company is also a priority and this makes them put in their best in whatever they do. A pleasant working environment and good interpersonal skills are the other things that we strive to maintain in our company, as also suitably rewarding an effort where it is deemed fit.

We being an innovative company, efforts are always made to work with the best and latest equipment, and efficient and cost-effective procedures are always adhered to. Special emphasis is given to custom orders as the real challenges lay in meeting them, and in these orders, if it is special papers of different sizes or new features that our customers' need, we happily comply with them.

Soon, we aim to bring more improvement in our production of printed boxes and bags, paper, corrugated, plastic and carbon packaging and be the best as regards price, service and delivery, thereby achieving 20% growth each year. Endeavoring to explore new products and markets in these future times, we hope to reach more number of customers and cover more regions of the globe, and maintain the numero uno status we currently enjoy.
